SENDING CHURCH TRAINING

A training providing the resources, consulting, education, and engagement your church needs to get involved in missions, or to hone your ministries for effective service.

START WELL

is designed to help your church grasp the biblical foundation and strategy for God honoring missions.

- Develop a theological framework for missions as the basis of a missions strategy
- Learn the common deviations from the mission and implement practices to help your church prevent common pitfalls
- Awaken to the reality that missions is the task of the local church and assume ownership of your role in missions helps your church think through its skills, experience, and connections to determine a strategy that will make a deep impact among the nations.

- Evaluate the individual, church, and global factors necessary to develop a meaningful missions strategy
- Decide what steps are required for your church to develop a biblical missions strategy and build a global vision for missions
- Learn about the missionary life in order to send and serve them well provides the practical steps required to ensure your missionaries are fully prepared and equipped to serve the Lord effectively for the long haul.

- Learn some challenges that missionaries face, especially those who are not sent well
- Build the framework to develop teams within your church that can ensure your missionaries are sent and served well
- Learn to pray well for missionaries

TESTIMONIAL

"I greatly appreciated the focus on proper biblical theology being the foundation for the mission work of the church. God's Word was highly valued and treated as our guide and standard. Not only did we learn important biblical principles and truths regarding missions and missionaries, but much time was spent explaining how we as a church can increase our involvement with and support of our missionaries. The practical aspects shared from the Meadows' experience and the experience of other missionaries on the field, was valuable in giving our church a better perspective of missionary life. Our church has grown in knowing how to specifically partner with and serve our missionaries better."
